-the sky was the ocean that day-

The irrepressible Jose Martos appears to be even more out of control than normal. Continuing his tradition of staging a blowout summer show each year at his home on the end of Long Island, he has this year tapped no less than six people to handle curatorial duties. Walead Beshty and Kelley Walker; Carol Bove; Bob Nickas and Virginia Overton; and Ryan Foerster. Sounds wild. —A.R.
